On March 12, Ram Krishna Timalsena, Registrar of the Supreme Court, informed Emboff that 15 district courts were using 65 Dell computer monitors, 61 Dell central processing units, and 20 Dell printers to help maintain court databases. Timalsena requested that post exchange 65 uninterrupted power supply (UPS) units incompatible with Nepal's electrical system. The UPS units are currently in storage at the Supreme Court. Post's Senior Law Enforcement Adviser in charge of INL programs has agreed to facilitate the exchange.
